

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS

This PRIVACY NOTICE FOR CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS supplements the information contained in the Slate.org Student Privacy Policy collectively, “we,” “us,” or “our”) and applies solely to visitors, users, and others who reside in the State of California (“consumers” or “you”). It explains how we collect, use, and share your personal information and how to exercise your rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (“CCPA”). Certain terms used in this Privacy Notice have the meanings given to them in the CCPA.

Information We Collect

We have collected the following categories of personal information from or about our consumers within the last twelve (12) months:

- Identifiers and personal information categories (e.g., name, date of birth, address, phone number, email address, Internet Protocol (IP) address, academic information)
- Internet or other electronic network activity information (e.g. information on your interaction with our website)
- Geolocation data

Sources of Information

We obtain the categories of personal information listed above from the following categories of sources:

- Directly from the data you enter in your Slate.org profile.
- Directly and indirectly from activity on our website (www.slate.org). For example, from submissions through our website portal or website usage details collected automatically.
- Directly from your educational institution.

Use of Personal Information

We may use or disclose the personal information we collect for one or more of the following business purposes:

- To fulfill or meet the reason for which the information is provided.
- To provide you with information and services that you request from us, or information related to the services you are utilizing.
- To maintain or service your account and to provide customer service.
- To improve our website, present its contents to you, and communicate operational updates (e.g., updates to our websites and services, security updates, etc.).
- To provide marketing notices about us, our services, and product features that we think might be of interest to you.
- To solicit your feedback about our services.
- To produce aggregated and anonymized analytics and reports.
- To provide you with technical support assistance.
- To carry out our obligations and enforce our rights arising from any applicable agreements.
- For testing, research, analysis and product development.

- As necessary or appropriate to protect the rights, property, or safety of us, our users and our clients (e.g., to detect and prevent fraudulent, deceptive, malicious, or illegal activity and to ensure all website users comply with our Terms of Use).
- To respond to law enforcement requests and as required by applicable law, court order, or governmental regulations.
- As described to you when collecting your personal information.
- To evaluate or conduct a business transaction, such as a merger or acquisition.

We will not collect additional categories of personal information or use the personal information we collected for materially different, unrelated, or incompatible purposes without providing you notice.

Sharing Personal Information

We do not share your personal information with "third parties" as the term is defined in CCPA. We disclose your personal information only to service providers who support us in delivering the services as described above. Service providers who may have access to personal information in the course of performing their services are subject to contractual restrictions on their use of the information.

We don't sell any of your personal information, and we never will.

Your Rights under the CCPA

Under the CCPA, you have the following rights:

- Right to Know: You have the right to request that we disclose certain information to you about our collection, use, and disclosure of your personal information over the past 12 months. Once we receive and confirm your request, we will disclose the following to you:
 - The categories of personal information we collected about you.
 - The categories of sources for the personal information we collected about you.
 - Our business or commercial purpose for collecting that personal information.
 - The specific pieces of personal information we collected about you.

We may not fulfill some or all of your request, as permitted by applicable law. If we deny your request, in full or in part, we will provide you with an explanation as to why we cannot honor your request.

- Right to Request Deletion: You have the right to request that we delete your personal information that we have collected about you, subject to certain exceptions (e.g., we may be legally required to retain your information in our business records). If we deny your request, in full or in part, we will provide you with an explanation as to why we cannot honor your request.

Last Updated 2/3/21

- Right to Non-Discrimination: We will not discriminate against you because you exercise your rights under the CCPA. For example, we will not deny you goods or services if you make an access or deletion request.

Exercising Your Rights

To exercise the rights described above, please submit your request to us by either:

- Submitting a request online
- Emailing a request to info@slate.org

You may only make a request for information twice within a 12-month period. We will not charge a fee to respond to your request.

Before we may fulfill your request, we are required by law to verify your identity in order to prevent unauthorized access to your data.

Only you, or a person whom you authorize to act on your behalf, may submit a request related to your personal information. This person may be required to provide documentation to support their authority to act on your behalf.
